METROPOLITAN NASHVILLE EVENT MARKETING FUND | FY 22-23

Metropolitan Nashville Event Marketing Fund

The purpose of the Metropolitan Nashville Event Marketing Fund is to provide revenue in order to create and support signature major events and stimulate visitor spending in Nashville/Davidson County.

The fund is not intended for festivals, concerts, sporting events and other happenings that attract a primarily local attendance and do not generate out-of-town visitation or stays in hotels. The fund is supported by Nashville's hotel industry and sourced through a $0.50 per room-night charge on hotel rooms in Davidson County.

Metropolitan Nashville Event Marketing Fund Committee

The Metropolitan Nashville Event Marketing Fund Committee is tasked with reviewing applications for the fund and making recommendations to the Nashville Mayor's Office for fund allocations. Final approval of allocations for the fund is the decision of the Nashville Mayor's Office and the Metro Director of Finance.

The Metropolitan Nashville Event Marketing Fund Committee includes:

Ben Goldberg, Committee Chair
Irwin Fisher	Leesa LeClaire
Mike Kelly	Miranda Whitecomb Pontes
Kevin Lavender	Colin Reed

The fund is administered by the Nashville Convention & Visitors Corp. All meetings are public, adhere to the Metro Nashville public meeting laws and are held at the Nashville Convention & Visitors Corp Boardroom.

Three percent of the total fund annual collections is dedicated to a Research and Development fund.
