Nashville's culinary scene is hotter than ever. In the last two years nearly 200 new food retail options opened across the city. With the rise in dining spots around the city, Nashville has a number of award-winning chefs and restaurants that are making their mark on the local, elevated scene and continue to push Nashville as a culinary destination.

Southern staples such as hot chicken, meat-and-threes, and pulled pork barbecue are deeply embedded in the city's food culture and remain a favorite for both the adventurous and the sophisticated palate.

10 THINGS TO DO IN MUSIC CITY

1 Hear the Music Where Music Lives: We're proud of the title "Music City" – nowhere else can you hear such diverse sounds as Americana, country, rockabilly, jazz, blues, classical, gospel, and rock n' roll. In fact, there are over 180 live music venues in Nashville.

2 Hit the Hall: Kick off your Nashville experience with a day at the Country Music Hall of Fame and Museum. The world's largest popular music museum offers ever-changing exhibits featuring the legends of country music past and today's hottest stars.

3 Ride the Row: Take a tour of Music Row and visit historic RCA Studio B, the famous recording studio where Elvis recorded over 250 songs. Roy Orbison, Dolly Parton, Everly Brothers, Eddy Arnold, and many more recorded classic hits here. Not surprisingly, the heartbeat of Music City is driven by music – from country to classical. Tours of RCA Studio B depart daily from the Country Music Hall of Fame and Museum.

4 Visit the Home Of the Greek Gods: In Nashville's Centennial Park, you'll find the world's only full-scale reproduction of the ancient Parthenon in Athens, Greece. The Parthenon houses an art gallery and museum as well as sculptor Alan LeQuire's Athena Parthenos. Standing at almost 42 feet in height, Athena is the tallest indoor sculpture in the Western world.

5 Take In a Songwriters-In-the-Round Show: One of the most unique ways to hear music in Nashville is at a songwriters show. Typically called a "writers night," songwriters are put somewhere they are not used to being – in the spotlight. Several singer/songwriters will play "in-the-round" as they sit on stage accompanied only by a microphone, a guitar, and their immense talent. These shows can be found in small, intimate clubs all over town, including the famous Bluebird Cafe in Green Hills and Downtown's The Listening Room Cafe.

6 Hear Nashville's Newest Sound: Honoring musicians from stars to studio players that represent all genres of music, the Musicians Hall of Fame and Museum is housed in the Nashville Municipal Auditorium. From Hank Williams, Sr. to the Red Hot Chili Peppers, Motown to Southern Rock – there is truly something of interest to everyone. Discover the central role African Americans have played in shaping and creating all genres of American music at the National Museum of African American Music (NMAAM). From classical to country to jazz and hip hop, NMAAM integrates history and interactive technology to share the untold story of more than 50 music genres and sub-genres.

7 Visit the Ryman Auditorium: The Ryman Auditorium, also called the "Mother Church of Country Music," has had artists as diverse as Jon Bon Jovi and Patsy Cline perform on its legendary stage since 1892. You can take a backstage tour and record your own song in the Ryman studio.

8 Take a Timeless Journey: The stars of the Grand Ole Opry take the stage every Tuesday, Friday, and Saturday night with guest appearances by the biggest names in music. With 95 years of history, the Opry is the world's longest-running broadcast and shows no signs of slowing down.

9 Salute: Three U.S. Presidents called Tennessee home – Andrew Jackson, James K. Polk, and Andrew Johnson. You can revisit the past at Andrew Jackson's Hermitage: The People's President. Polk is buried on the grounds of the historic State Capitol building in downtown Nashville.

10 Visit Honky Tonk Highway: Ole Red, AJ's Good Time Bar, Whiskey Bent Saloon, Robert's Western World, and more are all experts at serving up cool longnecks and hot country music. You never know who you'll see in these Lower Broadway clubs in the shadow of the Ryman. Willie Nelson, Kris Kristofferson, Gretchen Wilson, Dierks Bentley, and other stars began their careers on Lower Broadway.
